

This all are about opening ceremony of our first activities;EM bokashi and Climate Smart Agriculture Training Program, which is held in Hpa-Ann,Kamawkapo agriculture farm in 26.Jan.2018,and it was pressed from Myawaddy news papers pressed at 30.1.2018 and Agri-business journal N0.722 pressed at 7.2.2018.

In these articles,it was mentioned as following:

EM bokashi and Climate Smart Agriculture Training Program opening ceremony was held in Hpa-Ann,Kamawkapo Agriculture Farm by collaborating with Department of Agriculture of Karen State and Greater Mekong Subregion Agriculture and Education Development Center(GMSAEDC).

In this ceremony,U Than Naing(Minister of Planning,Finance and City Development Department) addressed the opening speech and Mr.Minoru Nakamoto(Deputy Director and General Secretary of GMSAEDC) talked about the regional development programs,which will be made in Karen State.

Then,U Win Hlaing Oo(Director of DoA) explained the objective of why we,DoA and GMSAEDC,open this type of training in Karen State.The reason why opening this training is to be able to earn more income as farmers from agriculture by practicing systematically in agriculture depend on current changing climate situation.

This training program was 2 days training program(26.Jan to 27.Jan.2018) and there had about 31 trainees from each district of Karen state.

In the next day(30.Jan.2018),according to regional development program,Land applied experts from DoA made EM bokashi demonstration plots and demonstrate this to 35 farmers from Lower Kaw Sein Ban village.